

RTI CENTER FOR EDUCATION SERVICES THEORY OF CHANGE

RESOURCES

- Ongoing professional growth for RTI Education Services staff
- Funding for service development and delivery
- Partnerships with other RTI Centers and external organizations to extend capacity

INPUTS

- Staff expertise/ capacity
- Client background
- RTI research resources and developed content

COLLABORATIVE DESIGN

- Done in partnership with clients including:
- Initial needs assessment
 - Definition of desired outcomes
 - Development, refinement, and customization
 - Planning for sustainability

RTI EDUCATION SERVICES IMPLEMENTATION

- Innovative research-based service combinations that support clients via:
- Teaching and Learning
 - Leadership
 - Strategic Consulting
 - Peer Learning Networks

CLIENT IMPLEMENTATION

- Educator actions defined for each engagement
- Expected changes resulting from RTI Education Services activities that support the targeted outcomes

CLIENT-INFLUENCED OUTCOMES

- Influenced by services, but only directly impacted through clients including:*
- Student outcomes (academic and non-academic)
 - Educator outcomes (performance, job satisfaction, and retention)

RTI-INFLUENCED OUTCOMES

- Can be directly impacted by RTI activities including:
- Client knowledge & skill development
 - Perceptions of quality
 - Deliverables
 - Milestones
 - Sustainable tools and practices